

Resources for Teaching and Learning First Landing Day, April 29

Compiled by Max Lyons

Please enjoy a teaching and a skit on the First Landing Day story, excerpted from my book Celebrate Our Christian Holidays, Like You Were There. I have placed them, with additional resources, on my website for you.

Teaching Children

In addition, for teaching First Landing Day to children, consider these resources:

Odyssey of Faith by Chris Evans, available from The Biblical Thinker. A free Teacher Guide is included.

Odyssey of Faith Picture Book and Coloring Book, available from The Biblical Thinker.

Jamestown Story in Pictures - The First Permanent English Colony in America - A Pictorial Album of Paintings, Paul Hudson and S.E. King*

These two children's books have good content and pictures but don't teach the Christian faith of the settlers, therefore you will need to use them in conjunction with Odyssey of Faith:

Three Ships Come Sailing, Gilchrist Waring*

A Children's Color Book of Jamestown in Virginia, Priscilla Hunt*

For Adults

For teaching older children and adults, use these resources:

The American Dream: Jamestown and the Planting of the American Christian Republic:
By Stephen McDowell and Mark Beliles (available from the Providence Foundation)

Two videos produced by the Christian Broadcasting Network (CBN):

First Landing, The Voyage from England to Jamestown, available from Amazon

Pocahontas, Dove of Peace, available from Amazon

Finally, go to <https://firstlanding1607.com/> and examine the many excellent resources from the First Landing 1607 Project.
